

Proclamation

by

Andy Beshear
Governor

of the

Commonwealth of Kentucky

To All To Whom These Presents Shall Come:

- WHEREAS, The tenth annual celebration of National Apprenticeship Week recognizes the success of the U.S. Department of Labor's apprenticeship program, an educational initiative that provides training for the current and future workforce of Kentucky and our nation while also facilitating career development; and
- WHEREAS, Apprenticeship's structured and laser-focused education and training provides unparalleled support to all industry sectors in developing a highly skilled and productive workforce and leadership for the economy of our Commonwealth and our nation; and
- WHEREAS, Apprenticeship advances leadership, hones technical skill sets, and provides quality outcomes, increased productivity, safe work environments, and positive worker attitudes; and
- WHEREAS, Apprenticeship creates a positive culture within our workforce, delivering the highest level of output for participating industries; and
- WHEREAS, Apprenticeship teaches apprentices the technical skills needed to be successful in their professions while also instilling in them the ability to communicate with clarity and demonstrate leadership qualities for professional and personal success;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, ANDY BESHEAR, Governor of the Commonwealth of Kentucky, do hereby proclaim November 17-23, 2024, as

APPRENTICESHIP WEEK

in Kentucky.

DONE AT THE CAPITOL, in the City of Frankfort the 1st day of November, in the year of Our Lord Two Thousand Twenty-Four and in the 233rd year of the Commonwealth.

Andy Beshear
ANDY BESHEAR
GOVERNOR

Michael G. Adams
Michael G. Adams
Secretary of State