2 Office of Unemployment Insurance

3 (Amendment)

4 787 KAR 1:100. Week of unemployment defined.

5 RELATES TO: KRS 341.080

6 STATUTORY AUTHORITY: KRS 151B.020, 341.115

7 NECESSITY, FUNCTION, AND CONFORMITY: KRS 341.080(3) provides that 8 the cabinet shall prescribe by administrative regulation the period of time which shall
9 constitute a week of unemployment for the purpose of administering the Unemployment
10 Insurance Program in accordance with KRS Chapter 341. The purpose of this administrative 11 regulation is to satisfy the statutory requirement.

12 Section 1. A "week of unemployment" shall be a calendar week of seven (7)
13 consecutive calendar days, beginning 12:01 a.m., Sunday and ending 12 midnight the 14 following Saturday except for any week he or she received shared work benefits in 15 accordance with KRS 341.4161 to 341.4173. A week of unemployment beginning in a 16 benefit year shall be deemed to be wholly in that benefit year.

Contact person: Matthew P. Lynch, Staff Attorney, Phone: 502-564-2776, Email: matt.lynch@ky.gov

(1) Provide a brief summary of:

(a) What this administrative regulation does:

This administrative regulation provides an exception to the definition of a “week of unemployment.”

(b) The necessity of this administrative regulation:

This administrative regulation is necessary to reflect the exception to the definition of a “week of unemployment” included in amended KRS 341.080(3).

(c) How this administrative regulation conforms to the content of the authorizing statutes:

KRS 341.115(1) authorizes the secretary to promulgate administrative regulations necessary or suitable for the proper administration of KRS Chapter 341. KRS 341.080(3) was amended to include an exception to the definition of “week of unemployment” for any week in which a claimant receives shared work benefits pursuant to KRS 341.4161 to 341.4173.

(d) How this administrative regulation currently assists or will assist in the effective administration of the statutes:

The administrative regulation specifies the time period constituting a “week of unemployment” in compliance with KRS 341.080(3).

(2) If this is an amendment to an existing administrative regulation, provide a brief summary of:

(a) How the amendment will change this existing administrative regulation:

The amendment to the regulation includes the statutory exception to the definition of “week of unemployment” for any week in which a claimant receives shared work benefits in compliance with amended KRS 341.080(3).

(b) The necessity of the amendment to this administrative regulation:

The amendment is needed to comply with KRS 341.080(3).

(c) How the amendment conforms to the content of the authorizing statutes:

The amendment specifies that a “week of unemployment” does not include any week in which a claimant receives shared work benefits pursuant to KRS 341.4161 to 341.4173 in compliance with KRS 341.080(3).

(d) How the amendment will assist in the effective administration of the statutes:

The amendment provides the secretary, Office of Unemployment Insurance staff, and unemployment claimants seeking benefits with the necessary information about the difference between a "week of unemployment" under the regular unemployment insurance program and the shared work benefits program.

(3) List the type and number of individuals, businesses, organizations, or state and local governments affected by this administrative regulation:

This administrative regulation affects unemployment insurance benefit recipients and employers participating in the shared work program in the Commonwealth and Office of Unemployment Insurance staff.

(4) Provide an analysis of how the entities identified in question (3) will be impacted by either the implementation of this administrative regulation, if new, or by the change, if it is an amendment, including:

(a) List the actions that each of the regulated entities identified in question (3) will have to comply with this administrative regulation or amendment:

The Office of Unemployment Insurance staff will need to distinguish between claims for benefits under the regular unemployment insurance program and claims for benefits under the shared work program.

(b) In complying with this administrative regulation or amendment, how much will it cost each of the entities identified in question (3):

There is no additional cost to the unemployment insurance benefit recipients or employers to comply with this administrative regulation.

(c) As a result of compliance, what benefits will accrue to the entities identified in question (3):

Unemployment claimants receiving benefits under the shared work program will not be deemed to have had a "week of unemployment."

(5) Provide an estimate of how much it will cost to implement this administrative regulation:

(a) Initially:

This amendment only includes a statutory exception to the definition of "week of unemployment" and is not expected to have any additional cost.

(b) On a continuing basis:

This amendment only includes a statutory exception to the definition of "week of unemployment" and is not expected to have any additional cost.

(6) What is the source of the funding to be used for the implementation and enforcement of this administrative regulation:

Current federal funding will be used for the implementation and enforcement of this administrative regulation.

(7) Provide an assessment of whether an increase in fees or funding will be necessary to implement this administrative regulation, if new, or by the change if it is an amendment:

An increase in fees or funding will not be necessary to implement this regulation.

(8) State whether or not this administrative regulation establishes any fees or directly or indirectly increases any fees:

There are no fees associated with this administrative regulation.

(9) TIERING: Is tiering applied? Explain why or why not.

Tiering is not applied. All unemployment insurance benefit recipients are treated equally depending on if the benefits derive from the regular unemployment insurance program or the shared work benefits program.
