Welcome to the Kentucky Department of Workers' Claims Litigation Management System

Please sign in to continue.

Registration is required to use the Kentucky Workers' Claims Litigation Management System. Once registered, you will be able to do the following, depending on your role: administer self-insurance, submit a claim, view a claim, or join an existing claim as attorney or claimant.

In step 2 of 5, you will select your role. This role dictates what actions you can take and what documents you can submit in the LMS system.

The screenshot shows a web form titled "Account Registration" with a progress bar indicating "Step 2 of 5". The question "How will you be using the system?" is followed by three radio button options: "Kentucky Attorney", "Court Reporter", and "Other". At the bottom right, there are three buttons: "Cancel", "Back", and "Next".

More on Roles:

- The Kentucky Attorney role requires the entry of a valid Kentucky Bar ID. The attorney role allows attorneys to keep track of their cases and file pleadings and other documents on behalf of their clients.
- The Court Reporter role requires a Tax ID or FEIN for registration. Those registered under this role may only file hearing transcripts and depositions.
- The Other role generally includes Employers, Insurance Companies, Insurance Adjusters and Third Party Administrators. These entities will have read-only limitations on claims with which they associate.

More on Roles:

- The Other role also includes Pro-Se parties and attorney support staff.* Registered users who are in these roles can initiate claims and file documents to existing claims.

*Attorney support staff should wait to register for LMS until they receive an invitation to the LMS Group for their law office. More on this later.

Step 3 of registration is where you can enter your profile information including name, address, and contact information.

In step 4 choose whether you would like to receive DWC communications electronically or by mail. You can change this election at any time after registration. Selecting paperless notifications means that when documents are filed in a case you are associated with, a notification will be shown in the “Notifications” screen when you are logged in to your LMS account. Rest assured, we will still send you any documents that are required to be mailed to you by law.

Step 4 of 5

I acknowledge by selecting "Yes" below that I am signing up for paperless communications from the Department of Worker's Claims and where possible, the DWC will send me notifications electronically using the email provided. I also acknowledge that the DWC may send me paper if necessary or if required by law.

Yes, I want to sign up for paperless notifications.

No, please continue to send me paper.

LMS Groups

LMS allows law firms and other organizations to set up groups. Establishing a group allows members to view claims to which the group is associated and assign claims for work purposes.

- Group creation and management is handled by Site Admins. There should be a responsible party in each organization that wishes to maintain an LMS group that creates the group. This party can designate up to 5 other site admins to assist with managing the group.
- Attorney support staff can register under the "Other" role once the LMS Group administrator invites them to the group. Invitees will receive an email with a link to register.

- At this time, registering as “Other” before receiving an invite from the site admin prohibits the user from joining an attorney group. Additionally, if a user with the “Other” role is removed from an attorney group after registering, they may not be added back to that group or any other attorney group.
- Court reporters cannot be added to LMS groups.
- Other organizations can also set up LMS groups using the “Other” role. Attorneys can be added to an LMS “Other” Group by accepting the invitation sent by the site admin but will not be able to file pleadings. Users already in the system as attorneys cannot be added to an “Other” group.
- If an attorney needs to join an “Other LMS Group,” they will need to use a separate email account.

After logging into LMS, to create an LMS Group, click on the downward-pointing arrow next to your name in the upper right corner of the screen. Select My LMS Group.

If the user is registered as an attorney, they will be prompted to create an LMS Group for attorneys or a law firm.

LMS Group Creation

Step 1 of 3

The logged in user will become the Site Administrator to manage claims and users for the LMS group. Please select the appropriate type of group you are registering from the list.

The Site Administrator will have the permissions to alter business/entity profile information, add users, remove users, create additional Site Administrators for the business.

Attorney Group/Law Firm

If the user is registered as "Other," four group type options are presented. Select the most appropriate. Note that by selecting Employer Group or Insurance Carrier/TPA Group, LMS's Insurance Coverage entry screens will be enabled.

LMS Group Creation

Step 1 of 3

The logged in user will become the Site Administrator to manage claims a group you are registering from the list.

The Site Administrator will have the permissions to alter business/entity Site Administrators for the business.

- Claim Administrator
- Employer Group
- Insurance Carrier/TPA Group
- Medical Provider Group

Users will next be prompted to enter contact information, a FEIN or Tax ID number, and information about the person responsible for the group. A user in the attorney role is required to provide a Bar ID.

Hello,

You have been invited by tessa sdlkd to join sdkfsdfj (LMS Group) in the Kentucky Litigation Management System. If you are a Kentucky Attorney, you may visit the URL link below to register in the Litigation Management System and join this LMS group:

<https://kyworkersclaims.uat.lms.ky.gov/Account/Register>

If you are not a Kentucky Attorney, you should decline this invitation by visiting the URL link below:

<https://kyworkersclaims.uat.lms.ky.gov/Invitation/Decline/4>

Please contact the Department of Workers' Claims at LaborKYWCLMS.TechnicalSupport@ky.gov if you have any questions.

Thank you.

Please do not reply to this email

On the LMS Group Administration page, the site admin can invite users to the group by clicking the invite user button. Entering the email address of the person you are inviting triggers an email to be sent to the email address provided.

The screenshot displays the LMS Group Administration interface. On the left is a dark blue sidebar with navigation options: System, LMS Group Claims, Notifications, and Admin. The main content area is titled 'LMS Group Administration' and has two tabs: 'LMS Group' (selected) and 'User Administration'. Below the tabs, there is a section for 'Associated Users' with an 'Invite User' button. A table lists one user: Dubble Scrimshaw with email cceperich@captechconsulting.com and role Site Admin. Below that is an 'Invitations' section with a table showing one invitation sent to snerwal@captechventures.com on 9/29/2015 3:06:55 PM, with a status of 'Awaiting Response'.

First Name	Last Name	Email	Role
Dubble	Scrimshaw	cceperich@captechconsulting.com	Site Admin

snerwal@captechventures.com	9/29/2015 3:06:55 PM	Awaiting Response

More about adding users to LMS groups:

- A user (email address) can only be associated with one group at any given time. To ease the LMS Group creation process, we encourage you to use your work email for registration.
- Should you need to be part of more than one group, you will have to register with a different email address for each one.
- As described earlier, Attorney support staff can register under the "Other" role once the LMS Group administrator invites them to the group. Invitees receive an email with a link to register.

- At this time, registering as “Other” before receiving an invite from the site admin prohibits the user from joining an attorney group. Additionally, if a user with the “Other” role is removed from an attorney group after registering, they may not be added back to that group or any other attorney group. They will need to use a different email address and register through another LMS group invite.
- Court reporters cannot be added to LMS groups.

LMS Group modifications and deletions:

- Contact information for the group can be updated under the “LMS Group” tab in the Admin area of the site.
- If you should need to delete your LMS Group, please remove all members and contact us for assistance.

Any new system has challenges and LMS is no different. We are diligently working to make the system better and more useful to you, the end users. Thank you for your patience and your suggestions are welcomed and appreciated. Email us at LaborKYWCLMS.TechnicalSupport@ky.gov. Thank you.
